Vivabox Review and Giveaway-Father's Day Giveaway #4 (for the Mom's)

Vivabox is a product that is a novel idea. The main gist behind Vivabox is your choice of several different "boxes" that have a theme and include products to fit this theme. Also a giftcard is included in each Vivabox as well, for an indulgence of sorts.

I received the Vivabox Spa (Manicure and Pedicure) and swooned over the whole getup. Not only did the Vivabox Spa contain some luxurious lavender lotions, and bath salts, but it also came with a gift card to receive a manicure and pedicure from my choice of thousands of spas across the country. I haven't actually redeemed my Mani and pedi yet, but I will be doing so shortly! I am thoroughly pleased and impressed by this company, and would love to utilize some of their other "boxes" as gifts. You can choose anything from a Bar-b-Que Box, to a Coffee Talk box, so there is bound to be something for anyone on your shopping list. Here is what is included in the Vivabox Spa:

We talk with our hands and (sometimes) timidly expose those toes. Give the gift of confidence with our Spa Beauty Vivabox.

What You Get

- 3 EO organic body lotions
- 1 EO organic shower gel
- 1 package of EO organic bath salts

Enclosed in this retreat-in-a-box is a gift card (with tip included!)for a manicure and pedicure at any of the more than 4,000 spas that participate in the SpaFinder worldwide network.

So, even though this is a Father's Day Finds Giveaway, being the sometimes selfish sweet person I am, I am throwing something in for us Women! So, since we put up with the men in our lives, we also totally deserve ahem, should enjoy some down time to spiffy ourselves up for them. Enter without guilt or conviction.

Vivabox is generously offering one of my extremely loyal readers a chance to win a Vivabox Spa of their very own. TO ENTER, head over to Vivabox, and tell me what other Vivabox appeals to you.
