2008 GIFT GUIDE

Gift Giving Guide 2008: Stumped for creative, holiday gift giving ideas? What to give to that foodie who has everything? TheListAreYouOnIt.com has a suggestion or two:

Vivabox Introduces a Fresh Take on Gift Giving – Have a friend who loves tea, but not sure of his favorite type? How about a foodie who would enjoy a romantic dinner at home, but you don't know which cuisine she prefers. Want to choose the best spa for a special someone across the country? Now you can, thanks to vivabox, a fresh new experiential gift. The first wave of vivabox products, now available online at www.vivaboxusa.com offers gift givers the ability to give two gifts in one. Unlike other experiential gifts on the market, vivabox offers its recipients a taste of what they can receive before easily redeeming a corresponding gift card to complete their experience. And with its expansive network of best-in-class partners and numerous choices for redeeming gifts, vivabox combines the immediate pleasure of a tangible gift with the ability for each recipient to choose what they want, and when they want it. The vivaboxes include:

- Spa Massage/Facial vivabox or Spa Manicure and Pedicure vivabox - From Boston to Seattle and everywhere in between, spa enthusiasts can enjoy a variety of spa services at one of over 4,000 of the top day spas, courtesy of vivabox spa partner, SpaFinder, the global resource in spa information, products and gifts. With the enclosed selection of natural bath and body products made with organic ingredients by EO® Products, gift recipients can begin the relaxation at home, and then choose to have a standard massage, facial or manicure AND pedicure at the location of his or her choice using their vivabox Spa gift card, also enclosed. The entire experience, even the tip, is included.
- Tea Time vivabox – For the gift recipient that enjoys a soothing respite over a warm cup of tea, vivabox tea offers an extraordinary experience. With tea partner Numi, tea lovers will enjoy a sampling of seven different flavors of specialty tea – including white rose, monkey king jasmine green and sunset oolong flowering tea - and can then redeem the enclosed gift card for a larger box of their favorite flavor, or other tea time related gifts, including teapots, music and assorted tea boxes.
- Gourmet to your Door vivabox – The ultimate fine dining experience- delivered to your door. With partner GourmetStation, a leader in upscale dinner gifts, the recipient of this vivabox will enjoy a three course meal at their home, in the cuisine of their choice; including French Bistro, Mediterranean Feast, New Orleans favorites and many more. To prepare for the evening, gift recipients will receive two luxury cloth napkins with silver plated napkin rings, and instructions on how to make the perfect napkin fold.

Other experiences include a Wine gift box, a Coffee gift box and a BBQ themed gift box, each of which will also feature best-in-class partnerships and creative delivery options. To learn more, or to shop the current collection, visit www.vivaboxusa.com.
